Verse 1 (He - 0:50)

OK, I drink a lot
And I take pills to get my spirits up
If life would be as harsh for you
You'd need these uppers and the stardust too
There's people nagging all the time, can't get no peace of mind
It's money, women, work, health or some of that combined
My life feels like a role
That happens when your own survival has become a goal

Bridge (He - 1:21)

_As I get home at night, you always start a fight, lately
_The booze inspires me, ignites a fire in me
But you keep me confined, I hide surrounded by my kind

Chorus 1 (She - 1:37)

_I know that I'm the odd one out
_I get that message when you shout
_This toxin slowly mastered you
_And there is nothing I can do
When you say these awful words to me
It's clear to see, that I'm the nr. 3

Verse 2 (He - 2:55)

_I know that what I do is really wrong, but this attraction's much too strong
_Don't wanna feel the pain all day long, so I escape from dusk till dawn
_Sure, I'm aware, it's really not that I don't care
But with some candy in my body, I really feel like somebody
_What should I do? _I love her too
But being at home feels slow and I am craving for some snow
My life feels like a role
That happened when my own survival became my goal
