Verse 1 (spoken)

You know Tegucigalpa? It sounds like paradise
But I know better, staying away would be wise
My plane is ready, and I know I have to go
My head moves forward, but my feet are so slow

Verse 2 (spoken)

So I try to sleep, but fear keeps me awake
I can't help but think 'this is one big mistake'
And I know that it is useless, to worry this way
The flight attendant whispers 'Are you okay, sir?'

Chorus 1

I dread to go to the place I've never been
I don't know, what dangers I'll be in
There's only one thing for it, take one step at a time
And keep smiling, if only in my mind
If only in my mind

Verse 3 (spoken)

Geez, this trip is jinxed, my first flight stayed at home
And now I'm stuck in Houston, crap, my agent on the phone
'If you can't make it, the deal cannot be done'
Ohw, all is against me, why even try to go on?

Guitar solo over instrumental verse

Bridge (spoken)

Tegucigalpa: the place I've never been and
I never wanted to go to, somehow it just kept me out
So I travelled half the planet just for a few phone calls
And there was nothing, nothing to worry about

Chorus 3

I dreaded to go to a place I'd never been
I was afraid, of the danger I'd be in
There was only one thing for it, took one step at a time
And kept on smiling and it all went fine
And it all went fine
