Verse 1

Everyday I listen to the radio
To songs by Kansas, U2 and Al Jarreau
And if it is a tune I know
I sing and croon along, from the highs until the lows
And all the people rushing by
Turn their heads and listen when they hear me cry

Chorus

God only knows it's paradise by the dashboard light
Or in the house of the rising sun
Enjoy the silence in the air tonight
Don't / stop / the show must go on

Verse 2

I want to dance and sing along
I know the words to every song
Let the music fill the room
Oh, what's my favorite melody?
Guess every song is dear to me
Let's turn up this tune
And the driver in the car that's next to me
Turns his head around because he wants to see

Bridge

Ten thousand songs on my music player
That's songs for two months or so
And yet it's much too predictable
So please surprise me, radio!
