Verse 1

Your love is like a summer breeze:
Warm embracing, it closes in and brings me to my knees
All defending systems go
It's no use, you found a way to let my feelings flow
And I don't wanna let you go (oh no)

Nothing's gonna stop us having faith in love

Verse 2

Your love is like a rolling sea:
Forever flowing, and everytime it's coming back to me
Sometimes the waves get a bit rough,
You nearly drown me, but always in your very passionate love,
And I will never get enough (of your love)

Chorus 2

Nothing's gonna stop us having faith in love
They'll never change this feeling as they,
They talk about people breaking each other's heart
'Cause we're walking the line, walking the line of love
Nothing's gonna change this feeling I got for you
As you call out my name it thrills me,
The borderline is crossed
And we're walking the line of love
